He said,
 “Young man, I tell you, arise!”
 The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother.

(from the Holy Gospel according to Luke 9:11b-17)

We continue our series of selected quotes from Amoris Laetitia, the recent letter on marriage and family from Pope Francis, with selected quotes on various difficult moral issues regarding marriage. These isolated quotes are only a sample of the pope's letter which must be read in full for a precise understanding of his message.

Same-sex Marriage

While the pontiff recognizes values he says are expressed in committed same-sex relationships, he clearly separates them from heterosexual relationships. He also affirms Pope Paul VI's teaching against use of contraception and speaks clearly against abortion. "We need to acknowledge that there are a variety of family situations that can offer a certain stability — be they temporary or multiple or same-sex unions — but these can in no way be equated with marriage. No union that is intentionally temporary or closed to the transmission of life can ensure the future of society."

"As for proposals to place unions between homosexual persons on the same level as marriage, there are absolutely no grounds for considering homosexual unions to be in any way similar or even remotely analogous to God's plan for marriage and family."

Contraception

"From the outset, love refuses every impulse to close in on itself; it is open to a fruitfulness that draws it beyond itself. Hence no genital act of husband and wife can refuse this meaning, even when for various reasons it may not always in fact beget a new life. Everyone has the obligation to form one's conscience and also the duty to follow one's informed conscience in all moral matters. The church has been called to form consciences, not replace them. Decisions involving responsible parenthood presuppose the proper formation of conscience, which is 'the most secret core and sanctuary of a person. There each one is alone with God, whose voice echoes in the depths of the heart.'"

Abortion

"So great is the value of a human life, and so inalienable the right to life of an innocent child growing in the mother's womb, that no alleged right to one's own body can justify a decision to terminate that life, which is an end in itself and which can never be considered the 'property' of another human being."

Gender Identity

Pope Francis speaks against what he calls gender ideology. "Let us not fall into the sin of trying to replace the Creator. We are creatures, and not omnipotent. Creation is prior to us and must be received as a gift. Although masculinity and femininity are not rigid categories, it needs to be emphasized that biological sex and the socio-cultural role of gender can be distinguished but not separated. We cannot separate the masculine and the feminine from God's work of creation, which is prior to all our decisions and experiences, and where biological elements exist which are impossible to ignore."

Hope for Grace in All Families

"Living a life of love offers a deeper union with God since spirituality is incarnate in the communion of the family. Those who have deep spiritual aspirations should not feel that the family detracts from the life of the Spirit but rather see it as a path by which the Lord leads them to greater mystical union. May we never lose heart because of our limitations, or ever stop seeking that fullness of love which God holds out before us."

JUNE-ALERT

Pope Francis says: "It is not possible to remain indifferent before knowledge that human beings are bought and sold like goods. I think of the adoption of children for the extraction of their organs, or women deceived and forced to prostitute themselves, of workers exploited and denied their rights of a voice. This is human trafficking." Access the website sistersagainstrafficking.org...U.S. Catholic Sisters Against Human Trafficking.

PLENARY INDULGENCE GIVEN WHEN VISITING A BASILICA

The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence by visiting a minor basilica. An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord's Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion and pray for the intention of the pope. ~taken from The Register, the Salina Diocese newspaper
