A leper came to Jesus and kneeling down begged him and said, “If you wish, you can make me clean.” Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched him, and said to him, “I do will it. Be made clean.”

(from the Holy Gospel according to Mark 1:40-45)

Everyone knows that this Tuesday is Mardi Gras, the final day before Lent. It's party time, one last fling, a day of merriment. Christianity has no difficulty with festivity. But long before the day before Lent was Mardi Gras, it was Shrove Tuesday. It is good to reflect on both titles for a balanced preparation for Lent.

Mardi Gras, literally, "Fat Tuesday," implies excess and indulgence. The origin of the term is something quite different. Originally, in the days before refrigeration, the day before Lent was the day to clean out the pantry of food that was forbidden during Lent. Food that would spoil during the forty days of Lenten fasting had to be consumed on the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday. So the final day before Lent became Fat Tuesday. Items like pancakes and doughnuts and funnel cakes were popular on the last day before Lent, hence the Pancake Race.

Modern society has turned that quite around. Today we don't empty our pantry, we fill it. We don't use up old supplies; we shop for Mardi Gras specials. We are not planning for the coming Lent. We are indulging in the present moment.

Shrove Tuesday, the other traditional name for this Tuesday, can put a proper perspective on Mardi Gras. Perhaps correct our excesses. Shrove Tuesday literally means Confession Tuesday. "To shrive" means to confess one's sins in the Sacrament of Penance. "To be shriven" means to be absolved of one's sins by a priest. Shrove Tuesday is the day to go to confession and accept the penance that you will do for Lent to atone for your sins. All three days before lent, Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday are known as Shrovetide, a time to reflect on our sinfulness and determine what Lenten penance would best atone for our failings.

This is a time to acknowledge our failings and to determine what Lenten observance is best for our spiritual development. Proper planning is every bit as important as faithful observance. But human nature tends to avoid such a serious confrontation. It is easier to wait and to see what Lent brings, take it as it comes. But if one does, then before one realizes, it is Palm Sunday, and we really haven't done much of anything for Lent.

The purpose of Shrove Tuesday, as well as Mardi Gras rightly observed, is to avoid such an aimless Lent. This is the day when we determine what kind of Lent we will have. Ash Wednesday may be too late. Mari Gras, Fat Tuesday, is the day to clean out your panty. Shrove Tuesday, Confession Tuesday, is the day to clean out the pantry of our soul, to acknowledge that sinfulness has cluttered our spirit, and to determine a remedy of effective Lenten penance.

Enjoy a festive Mardi Gras. But also find a few quiet moments for a sober Shrove Tuesday. Your Lent will be more fruitful.

. . . . . and mirth

The Golden Years: seen it all, done it all, can't remember most of it.

Ash Wednesday is February 18. Lent is a time of grace and renewal for the entire Church, especially for the catechumens and candidates preparing for initiation during the Easter Triduum. Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fasting (for those 14 through 59) and abstinence (for those 14 and over). The Fridays of Lent remain days of abstinence.

"I'll be 84 in a month," she replied.

Host Families Needed

Jan (called Honza by friends and family) is from the Czech Republic. He is a Catholic young man who is interested in attending church with his host family. His mother taught English at a school, so his English is very good. He loves sports, and reading, and would love an opportunity to live in America and learn more about life here. Jan is needing a family to host him this next school year. He would arrive in August, and stay until the end of next school year.

The host family provides a bed, meals, friendship, understanding, and a genuine desire to share the American way of life with a student from overseas. The students are covered by their own medical insurance, and have their own spending money for their personal expenses. Approved families can view online student applications and select the student that best matches their own family.

PLENARY INDULGENCE GIVEN WHEN VISITING A BASILICA

The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence by visiting a minor basilica. An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord's Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion and pray for the intention of the pope. ~taken from The Register, the Salina Diocese newspaper
