John the Baptist appeared in the desert proclaiming ... “One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”

(from the Holy Gospel according to Mark 1:1-8)

FRIARS' MIND

Among the many intriguing characters in the gospels—the Magi, Pilate, Nicodemus—perhaps the most curious is John the Baptist. Today's gospel introduces John with these striking words, "John the Baptist appeared in the desert, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. He was clothed in camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he fed on locust and wild honey." (Mk 1:4)

When the religious leaders of the people asked John who he was he replied, "I am 'the voice of one crying out in the desert, make straight the way of the Lord.'" (Jn 1: 23) It was John who baptized Jesus in the Jordan, not to cleanse Christ of sin, but to inaugurate the mission of Jesus with the blessing of God the Father who said as Jesus came out of the water, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." (Mk 9:7)

John the Baptist is a pivotal character in salvation history. As a prophet who preached the coming of the kingdom of God in the spirit of Elijah he is the link between the Old Testament and the New Testament. He prepared the people to receive the promised Messiah with a remarkable life that foreshadows that of Jesus.

The angel Gabriel announced the unusual conception of both John and Christ, assigning each a special name. Both preached the same message of conversion, "Repent, for the kingdom of God is at hand." Both defied the Sadducees and Pharisees. Both were thought of as prophets and feared by their enemies because of the people. Both were seized and bound. Both were sentenced by reluctant authorities and executed as criminals. And both were buried by their own disciples.

Despite these impressive similarities, John made it clear that he was not the Messiah. "One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit." (Mk 1:8) It was John who identified Christ as "The Lamb of God." (Jn 3:25)

John the Baptist is at the heart of the gospel message, especially in this Advent season when we prepare for the rebirth of Christ in our hearts. "There was a man sent from God whose name was John. He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light. The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world." (Jn 1:6)

Advent Week 2 — PEACE

Merciful Father, Giver of all that is good and holy, grant peace in our hearts, in our homes, and in our world.
Guide us to compassion for those whose lives are less fortunate than ours. Teach us to welcome those in whose presence we feel uncomfortable. Help us shed the vices of pride, selfishness, and greed. Fill our hearts with humility and a desire to live more fully in your presence.

Lord God, grant us Peace.

Retirement Fund for Religious

There will be a special collection this weekend, December 9-10, for the National Retirement Fund for Religious Sisters, Priests, and Brothers. Due to the generosity of people across our nation, last year the National Religious Retirement office was able to disperse over $25 million to 401 religious communities for direct care of elder members. Thank you for your generosity.

Prayer for a New Bishop

Heavenly Father, you have blessed our diocese time and again with good and holy bishops who have led us ever closer to you.

Aware of your profound love for us, we ask you to bless us once again. Send us a good and holy man to become our next bishop. Inspire us, the clergy, religious, and laity of the diocese to work generously with him so that we might grow together in your love and continue the good work you have begun in us for the sake of all.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever.

AMEN.

DIOCESE

family MATTERS

THE MONTH OF DECEMBER

Although too often many consider the month of December as the "Christmas Shopping Season," our Church reminds us it is Advent — a time to prepare, be watchful, and alert. As a family, be watchful and look for symbols of the season: Lights, stars, candles, bells, wreaths, holly, nativity scenes, and candy canes. These familiar symbols of Advent and Christmas are tangible ways for us to embrace, learn, and anticipate our spiritual journey as we prepare for Christmas. Let us prepare Him room in our hearts, in our church, and in our families as we journey through this Advent season.

YOUTH MINISTRY / CATHOLIC FAITH EDUCATION

The Knights of Columbus have invited our youth, kindergarten through 8th grade, to once again design a poster which reflects the theme of Keeping Christ in Christmas!

This encourages our kids to forget about Elf on the Shelf, the gifts, and all the chaos the holidays can bring; it allows them to focus on our true Reason for the Season.

If your child would like to participate in this poster contest please contact Jeanette in the Religious Ed Office for entry forms, guidelines, and posters.

Posters are due to the Religious Ed Office by Wednesday, December 20th, the last day of Religious Ed prior to Christmas Break.

Thank you,
Jeanette B.

PLENARY INDULGENCE GIVEN WHEN VISITING A BASILICA

The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence by visiting a minor basilica. An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord's Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion and pray for the intention of the pope.
