PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord’s Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

The Hound of Heaven

Gospel parables are meant to puzzle us and inspire a new perspective. This Sunday's story of the persistent widow and the dishonest judge has done just that to many, even scripture experts. We tend to assume that the judge represents God and the widow is a desperate Christian begging God for help. But a dishonest, heartless judge is not a fitting image of a merciful God.

Therefore some scholars have interpreted the parable with those roles reversed. The dishonest judge represents a reluctant Christian and the persistent widow represents God. Just as the widow hounded the judge until he granted her justice, God pursues the errant soul until repentance. That is the theme of Francis Thompson's poem, The Hound of Heaven.

*I fled Him down the nights and down the days;
I fled him, down the arches of
the years
I fled him down the labyrinthine
ways
I hid in laughter and the mist of tears.*

The sinner is fleeing from God who follows in pursuit. When the soul finally surrenders to God, the folly of his or her flight is explained, "All things betray thee, who betrayest Me."

Today's parable, as the Hound of Heaven, is an image of how God pesters the reluctant to repent. Practicing Christians who attend church and try to follow the commandments might wonder just how they are fleeing God who is in pursuit. Despite our basic commitment and our regular observance, most of us have certain areas of our faith where we are fleeing from God. And the Hound of Heaven will pursue us until we have accepted him fully.

We are all tempted to customize Christianity to suit ourselves, to pick and choose what is to our liking. We may, for example, follow faithfully the moral code of personal conduct but turn a deaf ear to social justice and civic charity. Or we may focus on tolerance and forgiveness but turn a blind eye to our own disregard of the commandments.

We often rejoice that God is merciful and forgiving. We should not forget that God is also a demanding Lord and a nagging Father. Every parent knows the need for "holy nagging." Children require a constant insistence to do what is right and proper. Our heavenly Father will nag his children until we respond fully to his grace. "Because this widow keeps bothering me, I shall deliver a just decision for her."

DIOCESE

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

TODAY IS WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

TODAY IS WORLD MISSION SUNDAY. We celebrate this day by remembering our Baptismal call to bring the Gospel to all! The collection today for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith ensures the work and service of the Mission Church, as it supports priests, religious, and lay leaders who offer the Lord's mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable communities in the Pope's missions. Thank you for your generosity.

I Heard Your Voice in the Wind Today

I heard your voice in the wind today
and I turned to see your face;
The warmth of the wind caressed me
as I stood silently in place.

I felt your touch in the sun today
as its warmth filled the sky;
I closed my eyes for your embrace and my spirit soared high.

I saw your eyes in the window pane
as I watched the falling rain;
It seemed as each raindrop fell
it quietly said your name.

I held you close in my heart today
it made me feel complete;
You may have died...but you are not gone
you will always be a part of me.

As long as the sun shines...
the wind blows...
the rain falls...

You will live on inside of me forever
for that is all my heart knows.

Cross Catholic OUTREACH DON'T MISS IT!

DIOCESE

Please Sign “Reverse the Ruling” Postcard Petition for Life

During October—“Respect Life Month”, the Bishops of Kansas are asking for as many Kansas Catholics as possible to fill out Petition Postcards to show support for a State Constitutional Amendment.

The amendment language will be clear and concise: there is NOT a right to abortion in the Kansas Constitution.

It is our response to the horrific decision handed down earlier this year in the case of Hodes & Nauser, MDs v. Schmidt which allows live dismemberment abortion to continue in Kansas and opens the door for the virtual elimination of all pro-Life legislation in Kansas. This is the first step in letting our elected officials know how we feel. The petition is available in the form of a postcard or a paper petition, both of which can be found at the church entrances. An online version with additional information can be found at www.KansasCatholic.org. Please use the method that is most convenient for you.

If you choose to use the postcard, please return it in the collection plate sometime during the month of October.
