When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury.
They rose up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town had been built,
to hurl him down headlong.
But Jesus passed through the midst of them
and went away.

(from the Holy Gospel according to Luke 4:21-30)

Pope Francis, always the innovator, has a different take on this Sunday's gospel which is a continuation of last Sunday's reading. He sees it as a warning against the destructive evil of gossip. He does so in the following reflecting by focusing not so much on the words and deeds of Christ, but on the reaction of the people.

"In Nazareth all were waiting for Jesus. Everyone wanted to meet him because they had heard of all he had done in Capernaum, the miracles. When the ceremony began, they asked their guest to read from the Book. Jesus did so and read from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah which was a prophecy about him. It was for this reason that he ended his reading with the words: 'today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.'

"The first reaction of the people was positive. Then, however, the worm of envy began to work its way into their minds and hearts and they began to say: 'Where did this man study? Is this not Joseph's son? And we all know who he is related to . . .' So they began to clamor for him to do a miracle for them: only then would they believe. They wanted a show. 'Work a miracle and we will all believe in you!' But Jesus is not a performing artist.

"Jesus worked no miracle in Nazareth. He pointed to the little faith of those who asked for a show. They became angry, they stood up and led Jesus to the brow of the hill that they might throw him down and kill him. What had begun in joy almost ended in crime, out of jealousy, out of envy.

"This happens every day, in our heart, in our communities. We might welcome someone and speak well of him or her the first day but little by little that worm eats away at our minds until our gossip banishes them from good opinion. That person in a community who gossips against his or her neighbor is, in a sense, killing them. The Apostle John tells us that anyone who hates his brother is a murderer. (1Jn 3:15)

"We are only too familiar with gossip and spreading rumors, and so we often transform our communities as well as our family into a hell where this kind of crime that leads to killing one's brother and sister with one's tongue is manifest.

"The Bible says that the devil came into the world through envy. A community, a family is destroyed by this envy that the devil teaches in the heart and causes one to speak ill of the other. In our own personal lives we need to think about our own daily weapons of the tongue, and gossip, and tittle-tattle. Gossip is a weapon and it threatens the human community every day; it sows envy, jealousy, and power struggles. It has even caused murder. Discussing peace must take into account the evil that can be done with one's tongue.

"In order that there may be peace in a community, in a family, in a country, in the world, we must start by being with the Lord. And where the Lord is there is no envy, there is no crime, there is no jealousy; there is only peace. Let us ask this of the Lord: never to kill our neighbor with our tongue, and to be with the Lord now just as we shall all be with him in heaven."

Spiritua Bouquets

This Valentine's Day do you know someone who would enjoy receiving a Valentine's Day card and Spiritual Bouquet from our youth? Do you know of somebody who could use prayers for healing, comfort, guidance, peace, etc.?

World Day of Consecrated Life

The World Day of Consecrated Life will be celebrated in the Church on Tuesday, February 2, (the feast of the Presentation of the Lord—also known as Candlemas Day), and in the parishes on the weekend of February 6-7. Please pray for all those who have made commitments to consecrated life, and be sure to thank them on their special day. May they continue to be inspired by Jesus Christ and respond generously to God's gift of their vocation. In 1997, Pope Saint John Paul II instituted a day of prayer for women and men in consecrated life. The celebration of World Day for Consecrated Life is transferred to the following Sunday in order to highlight the gift of consecrated persons for the whole Church.

ASH WEDNESDAY—FEBRUARY 10

Lent is a time of grace and renewal for the entire Church, especially for the catechumens and candidates preparing for initiation during the Easter Triduum. The three traditional ascetical practices of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving are important pillars for a faithful experience of Lent. Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fasting (for those 14 through 59) and abstinence (for those 14 and over). The Fridays of Lent remain days of abstinence.

PLenary INDULGENCE GIVEN WHEN VISITING A BASILICA

The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence by visiting a minor basilica. An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord's Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion and pray for the intention of the pope. ~taken from The Register, the Salina Diocese newspaper
