World Day for Consecrated Life
Boy Scout Sunday
Super Bowl Sunday
Groundhog Day

When the days were completed for their purification according to the law of Moses, Mary and Joseph took Jesus up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord, just as it is written in the law of the Lord.

(from the Holy Gospel according to Luke 2:22-40)

As a small child your mother taught you a traditional night prayer:

*Now I lay me down to sleep
I pray the Lord my soul to keep.
If I should die before I wake.
I pray the Lord my soul to take.*

A nice prayer. For children. Where is there a night prayer for adults? Night prayer in the Liturgy of the Hours, the official prayer of the church, is called Compline. Today's gospel records the Canticle of Simeon which is the high point of Compline. Simeon's canticle is known as the Nunc Dimittis from its opening words in the Latin text.

*Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace,
according to your word,
for my eyes have seen your salvation,
which you prepared in the sight of all the peoples,
a light for revelation to the Gentiles,
and glory for your people Israel.*

This Canticle of the prophet Simeon is a prayer of grateful resignation to God's will on the occasion of an ending or a transition. It expresses a peace of acceptance and a joy of completion, not so much because I have completed my task, but because God has completed his work and fulfilled his promise in my life.

The Nunc Dimittis is not entirely original with Simeon. It is a mosaic of verses taken from the prophet Isaiah, i.e. "seeing salvation," "in the sight of all the peoples," "a light to the gentiles," "glory for Israel." (Is 52:9-10, 49:6, 46:13, 42:6, 40:5). As any mosaic, it uses pieces from another source to create an original beauty of its own.

There are three doublets in this Canticle: a) dismissal in peace, b) for God has kept his word; a) having seen the salvation, b) prepared in the sight of all the peoples; a) light to the Gentiles, b) the glory of Israel.

This canticle offers a view of salvation which spans both the Old Testament and the New Testament. The salvation spoken of is rooted in God's chosen people, Israel, but this salvation is a light to the gentiles, who are now included in God's people. This message is the same as that of the Epiphany and of the development of Christianity in the Acts of the Apostles.

The Nunc Dimittis is a scriptural night prayer to enrich the faith of adult Christians.

*Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace,
according to your word,
for my eyes have seen your salvation,
which you prepared in the sight of all the peoples,
a light for revelation to the Gentiles,
and glory for your people Israel.*

Today is World Day for Consecrated Life

Pray for Those in Consecrated Life

In 1997, Pope John Paul II instituted a day of prayer for women and men in consecrated life. This celebration is attached to the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord on Sunday, February 2. This Feast is also known as Candlemas Day: the day on which candles are blessed symbolizing Christ who is the light of the world. So, too, those in consecrated life are called to reflect light of Jesus Christ to all peoples.

Please pray for all those who have made commitments in the consecrated life, and be sure to thank them on their special day. May they continue to be inspired by Jesus Christ and respond generously to God's gift of their vocation.

Today is Boy Scout Sunday

The Boy Scouts of America was incorporated in 1910 and its first handbook published in 1911.

By 1912, Arthur R. Eldred became the first Eagle Scout. Alexander M. Hoisinger was named the one millionth Eagle Scout in 1982 and Anthony Thomas became the two millionth Eagle Scout in 2009.

The Scouts started registering members in 1913, asking a 25 cent yearly fee. Within 12 years, in 1925, their membership grew to over one million, and by 2000 the organization reached its 100 millionth registered member.

Perhaps because younger brothers were seeing older brothers enjoying Scouting, a Cub Scout program was begun in 1930.

This information was retrieved from the Boy Scouts of America website at www.scouting.org.

Today is Super Bowl Sunday

The first Super Bowl was held on January 15, 1967, at the Memorial Coliseum in Los Angeles, California. The teams competing were the Kansas City Chiefs and the Green Bay Packers. The Packers won with a score of 35-10.

Bart Starr, quarterback, was named the Most Valuable Player (MVP) in the first Super Bowl.

The Packers also won against the Oakland Raiders during Super Bowl II the following year.

This year is Super Bowl XLVIII (48).

It will be held in the 82,500-seat capacity MetLife Stadium in East Rutherford, New Jersey. The competing teams are the Seattle Seahawks and Denver Broncos. The halftime show performances will be by Bruno Mars and Red Hot Chili Peppers.

This information was gathered from the www.nfl.com website.

Today is Groundhog Day

Groundhog Day is the day that the groundhog comes out of his hole after a long winter's sleep to look for his shadow. The day he does this in the United States is February 2nd.

If he sees his shadow, it means six more weeks of bad winter weather for him, so he retreats to his nice cozy hold in the ground.

If the day is cloudy so shadows don't appear, the groundhog takes this as a sign that Spring is near and he remains outside of his hole to enjoy the day.

The tradition of Groundhog Day began in Europe. It was associated with Candlemas Day on February 2nd, a day on which clergy would bless candles and distribute them to the early Christians. The Romans eventually brought the tradition to the Germans who picked it up and concluded that if the sun made an appearance on Candlemas Day, the hedgehog would cast a shadow and be a sign of six more weeks of bad weather.

Pennsylvania's earliest settlers were Germans. They found groundhogs there that to them resembled the European hedgehog. And so the tradition continued.

The Punxutawney Groundhog Club in Punxutawney, Pennsylvania, keeps the legend alive by annually celebrating the appearance on February 2nd of the groundhog Punxutawney Phil.

Lighthouse Catholic Media CDs

HAVE YOU DONE YOUR EVANGELIZATION TODAY?

It's hard, isn't it? Catholics don't find evangelization easy. Yet, we are all called to evangelize! Simply by being baptized, we take on that responsibility! But Lighthouse Catholic Media can help! Listen to the CDs to learn, listen again to learn better, then share them! How easy is that? Do you have a family member who has left the Church? One person who lost her faith in college, asked, after listening to several, "Why didn't I know this?" Simply ask someone to listen or ask if they'll tell you where they think the speaker is wrong. Remember, saving one soul can aid in your salvation. Questions? Call Jan at the Parish Office.

A number of Lighthouse Catholic Media CDs are available in the vestibule at the west entrance of St. Fidelis Church. A $3.00 donation is requested for each CD and can be placed in the slot near the CDs.

The family of Patty Gross Dreiling would like to thank everyone for their generosity during the time of our loss.

The donations that were received for Patty's Memorial Fund as well as money for masses, cards received, and all the delicious food, along with all the comforting words and memories shared by so many, was greatly appreciated!

We received several envelopes with cash that had no information filled out, so we hope you see this thank you and know that your donation in her honor was greatly appreciated.

She was an awesome Wife, Mother, Mother-In-Law, Grandmother, Great-Grandmother, Sister, and Friend to many with an infectious SMILE!

From the stories we heard, Patty will always be remembered by the young Vincent parishioners as the "Cookie Lady". Thank you to the parishioners for all the help you gave both Vern and Patty in their later years. They were dedicated to your parish and wanted Vincent as their final resting place.

Another volunteer opportunity at the parish office will begin around the first week of February. We have ordered 1,000 of Sharing Our Best cookbooks. The cookbooks are printed at Northwestern Printers in Hays but they are put together here at the PAC. We also are having 1,000 copies of Towers of Heavenly Recipes reprinted. These will also be put together by volunteers. This is an assembly line process but you may come in for an hour or an entire day to help with the books. We will also work some evenings for those of you who cannot help during the day. Hopefully, we can finish the entire process in 2 months. If you have time to help out, call Jan at the Parish Office.

Food Pantry Donations

For those of you who travel, if you have the toiletry items that are in the hotel rooms that you do not use, such as shampoo, soap and lotion, we will take them for our food pantry.

The food pantry is always taking donations. We can always use any kind of food, but we also take shampoo, soap, toothpaste, and toothbrushes.

Coffee and cookies will be served after the Thursday 6:45 a.m. weekday Mass in the north sacristy of St. Fidelis Church. Come and enjoy some good conversation with the priest and your fellow parishioners.

Liturgy of the Hours Evening Prayer begins at 6:30 p.m. on Mondays and Wednesdays (before the 7:00 Mass). A special prayer book is required and will be provided for the participants. We invite everyone to join in this special prayer.
