(from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew 22:1-14)

COLUMBUS DAY Monday, October 13

Monday is Columbus Day, a national holiday. The adventure of Christopher Columbus was not only about the discovery of a new land, but also the commission of Christ to preach the gospel to all nations. The Spanish Crown and Christopher Columbus surely had mixed motives, not all of them noble, but one of their main objectives was to bring Christianity to a new land. There are historical facts which verify that.

Every school child knows that the three ships of 1492 were the Nina, the Pinta, and Santa Maria. The full name of the flagship was La Santa María de la Inmaculada Concepción, The Blessed Mary of the Immaculate Conception. When Columbus landed in the new world, somewhere in the Bahamas, he named the first island on which he set foot, San Salvador, The Holy Savior. Another island he named Santa Maria de la Concepcion, after the Immaculate Conception of the Virgin Mary, the mother of Christ. On later trips he called the archipelago near Cuba Our Lady's Sea. A strikingly circular island he named Santa Maria Rotunda.

However misguided some of his later efforts were in dealing with the native people, the furthering of the gospel was an integral part of the adventure of Columbus. Modern historians tend to judge the actions of Columbus and the Spanish Crown rather harshly and not without some justification. Yet the history of our own nation, and most nations, betray similar faults. "Let he who is without sin cast the first stone."

An old adage, "Don't throw out the baby with the dirty bath water," may help to place the adventure of Columbus in proper perspective. Our history professor in the seminary often said that the history of Christianity is like a grand Cathedral, but the only things that many people see are the pigeon droppings on the exterior.

This land that Columbus discovered was soon afflicted with its own blemishes, including a religious intolerance which is difficult for us to comprehend today. That atmosphere was fueled in the 19th century by organizations such as the Klu Klux Klan, the Nativist movement, and the Know-Nothing Party. In 1881 a young parish priest in New Haven, Connecticut, Fr. Michael McGivney, organized a group of men to provide financial and moral support for immigrants subjected to religious discrimination, especially widows and orphans. He named this fraternal benevolent society The Knights of Columbus to recall that the roots of our nation were religious and that people of every faith were equal citizens in the land discovered by a man of faith.

As attitudes became more tolerant Fr. McGivney's group adapted to the evolving social needs of immigrants and their descendants. Today, the Knights of Columbus, whose charitable works are well known, are a thriving fraternal organization nearly two million strong. Along with many other such benevolent groups they enrich the social fabric of our nation. The adventurous captain of that flagship, La Santa María de la Inmaculada Concepción, would be proud of them.

The Benefits of Bran Flakes

Chuck and Yvonne were 85 years old and had been married for sixty years. Though they were far from rich, they managed to get by because they carefully watched their pennies. Though not young, they were both in very good health, largely due to Yvonne's insistence on healthy foods and exercise for the last decade.

One day, their good health didn't help when they went on a vacation and their plane crashed, sending them off to Heaven.

They reached the pearly gates, and St. Peter escorted them inside. He took them to a beautiful mansion, furnished in gold and fine silks, with a fully stocked kitchen and a waterfall in the master bath. A maid could be seen hanging their favorite clothes in the closet. They gasped in astonishment when St. Peter said, "Welcome to Heaven. This will be your home now."

Chuck asked Peter how much all this was going to cost. "Why, nothing," Peter replied, "Remember, this is your reward in Heaven."

Chuck looked out the window and saw a championship golf course, finer and more beautiful than any ever built on Earth.

"What are the greens fees?" grumbled Chuck.

"This is Heaven," St. Peter replied. "You can play for free, every day."

Next, they went to the clubhouse and saw the lavish buffet lunch. "Don't even ask," said St. Peter to Chuck. "This is Heaven; it is all free for you to enjoy."

Chuck looked around and nervously asked Yvonne, "Well, where are the low fat and low cholesterol foods and the decaffeinated tea?"

"That's the best part," St. Peter replied. "You can eat and drink as much as you like and you will never get fat or sick. This is Heaven!"

"No gym to work out at?" said Chuck.

"Not unless you want to" was the answer.

"No testing my sugar or blood pressure or..."

"Never again."

Chuck glared at Yvonne and said, "You and your Bran Flakes! We could have been here ten years ago!"

PLENARY INDULGENCE GIVEN WHEN VISITING A BASILICA

The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence by visiting a minor basilica. An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord's Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion and pray for the intention of the pope. ~taken from The Register, the Salina Diocese newspaper
