So then the Lord Jesus, after he spoke to them, was taken up into heaven and took his seat at the right hand of God.

(from the Holy Gospel according to Mark 16:15-20)

This Sunday is Ascension Thursday. At least the celebration of Ascension Thursday is transferred to this Sunday. Catholicism is fond of paradoxes.

The structure of modern life is a good reason for the transfer of the celebration of the Ascension from Thursday, forty days after Easter, to the following Sunday. Christians today must live on a secular timetable which often hampers religious celebrations on weekdays. This transfer should not be seen as diminishing the significance of this feast, but rather as a prudent adjustment to celebrate the feast with proper solemnity.

The Ascension of Christ is reported differently in each of the four gospels. Mark's gospel says, "After having spoken to them, the Lord Jesus was taken up into heaven and took his seat at the right hand of God." (Mk 16:19) Matthew does not mention the Ascension, but implies it when the risen Christ summons the disciples to the mountain and commissions them to preach the gospel to the whole world. Both John (Jn 20:12-17) and Paul (Rm 10:6, Eph 4:9) refer to the Ascension, but do not give a time nor a description.

Luke's gospel says of the Ascension of Christ, "He led them as far as Bethany, raised his hands, and blessed them. As he blessed them he parted from them and was taken up to heaven." (Lk 24:50-51) Then in the Acts of the Apostles, Luke writes, "When they had gathered together. . . as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him from their sight." (Acts 1:6,9)

There is a time discrepancy in Luke's two accounts. In Luke's gospel (24:51), as in John's (Jn 20:17), Christ ascends into heaven on Easter Sunday evening. But in the Acts of the Apostles, Luke has Christ appear to his followers over a period of forty days and then ascend into heaven. (Acts 1:3-9) Biblical numbers are often more theological than chronological. From Noah's flood to the Lord's fast in the desert, forty days is symbolic rather than scientific.

From God's viewpoint the Ascension of the risen Christ is timeless, but there is a temporal sequence from the viewpoint of those whose lives it touched. This dichotomy of God's time versus our time is something we have all experienced physically, emotionally, and spiritually. The Resurrection-Ascension is a single mystery in which the Ascension visibly terminates the activity of Jesus on earth and prepares the apostles to be his witnesses to the ends of the earth.

And there is more. Although the Resurrection and the Ascension are the core of the fundamental mystery of our faith, the Paschal Mystery, that mystery will be completed only at the second coming of Christ at the end of time. We profess our faith in that fullness of the Paschal Mystery when we respond at the most solemn moment of Mass, "We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection, until you come again."

Pastoral Council Nominations

St. Ann Parish is accepting nominations for Pastoral Council for the 2015-2018 term. Helen Windholz's term as council member will expire at the end of June. Helen is eligible and willing to accept a second term. If there are other parishioners who are 18 or older and are interested and willing to accept a nomination, please call Father John at 735-2777.

Name for St. Ann Parish

St. Ann's Parishioners,

WE NEED YOUR HELP. We would like to give our parish a name and would like your suggestions.

Our sister parishes both have names to reflect the uniqueness of their people and their values. St. Boniface has the name of "Pearl of the Prairie" and St. Fidelis has the name of "Cathedral of the Plains". We would like a name for our special parish, also.

So, be thinking about a name that will reflect St. Ann's people.

You can e-mail your suggestions to Helen Windholz at windfarm@ruraltel.net or call her at 785-735-2293 or 785-735-4766 (please call in the evenings); OR on May 24th at the 7:30 a.m. Mass, we will have slips of paper in each pew for you to write your suggestion down. We will collect them in a 2nd collection or after Mass.

After we have collected all of the suggestions, we will give everyone a chance to vote on the final name.

The person who has suggested the winning name will receive a prize, so include your name with your suggestion if you want to be eligible for a prize.

Thank you for your time and ideas.

St. Ann's Parish Council
Allen, Helen and Jerry

Thrift Shop Doing Well

The St. Fidelis Thrift Shop continues to do very well. Thank you to all who donate and purchase items. A HUGE THANK YOU to all the volunteers who continue to show up every day. This could not have been a success without all of your support. Please stop by and support the Thrift Shop. Or if you have anything to donate you can drop it off during the regular hours or call the parish office to make other arrangements. All the proceeds go to help those less fortunate. It supports the St. Fidelis Food Pantry, our gas voucher program, and offers cash assistance to parishioners in need. Thank you again. Jan

Getting Old

An old man was telling his grandchildren how old he's gotten and about all the troubles that come with age.

"I've sure gotten old," he told them. "I've had two bypass surgeries, a hip replacement, and new knees. I've fought prostate cancer and diabetes. I'm half blind and can't hear anything quieter than a jet engine. I take 40 different medications that make me dizzy, winded, and subject to blackouts. I have bouts with dementia. I have poor circulation—can hardly feel my hands and feet anymore. I can't remember if I'm 89 or 98. And I've lost all my friends," he told the kids.

"But, thank God, I still have my driver's license."

Pastoral Council Elections

St. Fidelis Pastoral Council elections will be held the weekend of May 31-June 1. If anyone is interested in running for a position on the Council or if you want to nominate someone for a position, please contact the Parish Office at 785-735-2777. Thank you.

Earthquake relief

Taken from www.SalinaDiocese.org

By Bishop Edward Weisenburger

As by now most of us know, a 7.8-magnitude earthquake struck Nepal on April 25, toppling buildings and homes, causing widespread panic, and claiming thousands of lives.

A special collection will be taken up at all Masses on May 16-17.

Our Church mourns the terrible suffering of our brothers and sisters affected by this catastrophe. Please join with the Catholic community across the United States in responding to our suffering brothers and sisters through a special collection for the works of Catholic Relief Services in Nepal.

Catholic Relief Services has already begun a major response to this crisis, providing 10,000 families (50,000 people) with emergency shelter materials, blankets, water treatment, and hygiene kits. Given the scale of the disaster, the agency expects to expand relief activities. Your assistance is greatly appreciated.

Checks for this special collection may be written to your local parish, which will combine the funds and forward them to the diocese.

For those who wish to donate directly to Catholic Relief Services, the address is P.O. Box 17090, Baltimore, MD 21297-0303 (write "Nepal Earthquake" in memo line) or donate online at crs.org.

PLENARY INDULGENCE GIVEN WHEN VISITING A BASILICA

The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence by visiting a minor basilica. An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord's Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion and pray for the intention of the pope. ~taken from The Register, the Salina Diocese newspaper
