“I am baptizing you with water, for repentance, but the one who is coming after me is mightier than I. I am not worthy to carry his sandals.”

(from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew 3:1-12)

The FEAST OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION is THURSDAY, DECEMBER 8, a Holy Day of Obligation.

Masses are at 6:45 a.m. and 7:00 p.m.

The Parish Office will be closed.

No Eucharistic Adoration in St. Fidelis Church and no coffee at the Parish Office that day.

The gospels present many intriguing characters: Mary Magdalene, the Magi, Pilate, Nicodemus, and perhaps the most curious of all, John the Baptist. Today's gospel gives this almost exotic description of him: "John the Baptist appeared in the desert, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. He was clothed in camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he fed on locust and wild honey."

Movies capitalize on that description and often portray John as a wild fanatic, almost a raving maniac. But a careful reading of the gospels reveals that John was a prophet in the spirit of Elijah who preached the coming of the kingdom of God. That is the same message that Jesus preached, and Jesus was also a prophet in the spirit of Elijah.

John the Baptist is a pivotal character in salvation history, linking the Old Testament to the New Testament. It has been said that John the Baptist has one foot in the Old Testament and the other in the New Testament. In the language of show business, he is the warm up act preparing the audience for Jesus of Nazareth.

When the beginning of the gospel story moves from Nazareth to the Jordan the reader first meets not Jesus but John the Baptist. Yet John's message to his followers is not about himself, but about Jesus of Nazareth. He points to Jesus telling them, "Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world." (Jn 1:29) John's primary task is to prepare Israel for the coming of the promised Messiah. As such John baptizes and preaches repentance to make the people ready to receive the person and the work of Jesus. In Scriptural terms, John is an eschatological prophet, the typological forerunner of Jesus, whose life parallels and foreshadows that of Jesus.

The similarities of John the Baptist and Jesus of Nazareth, aside from the fact that they were cousins, should not be overlooked. The angel Gabriel announced the unusual conception of both, assigning a special name to each. Both preached the same message, "Repent, for the kingdom of God is at hand." Both attack the Sadducees and Pharisees. Both appealed to the same generation to repent. Both claimed to act by the authority of God. Both were thought of as prophets and feared by their enemies because of the people. Both were seized and bound. Both were sentenced by reluctant authorities. Both were executed as criminals. And both were buried by their own disciples.

Despite these impressive similarities, John himself made it clear that there was a critical difference between them. He was not the Messiah. "One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit." (Mk 1:8) John does not speak of himself, but of Jesus, as The Lamb of God.

John the Baptist is very much at the heart of this Advent season. His message helps us to sort through all the distractions of the world to prepare for the rebirth of Christ in our hearts. "There was a man sent from God whose name was John. He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light. The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world." (Jn1:6) "Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world." (Jn 1:29)

SECOND WEEK OF ADVENT

Dear Lord, through the darkness, I look for your wisdom. I want my heart to be open to you. But sometimes in these days, it seems that so many things come between us. Help me to be awake and aware of the radiance you bring to my life. Help me to be grateful each day for the blessings of family and friends. Let me be a peacemaker in my own life, and in the world. Let me pray especially for this difficult world and those who are so in need of an end to violence. My heart begs for this as my Advent prayer today.

AMEN.

“Pope Francis invites us to understand more deeply our relationships with God, one another, and the rest of creation, and to live accordingly. ‘Everything is connected,’ he reminds us. (LS 91).”

DIOCESE

Your donation works for aging religious. "I read that roughly 95 percent of donations to the Retirement Fund for Religious aid senior religious," a donor writes. "That's wonderful when we truly want our donations to work."

Your gift works for elderly religious by helping to furnish medications, nursing care, and more. Please support next week's collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious, and give to those who have given a lifetime.

Due to the generosity of people across our nation, last year the National religious Retirement Office was able to disperse $25 million to 401 religious communities for direct care of elder members.

November 2016

Dear Friends in Christ,

Our parishes will be conducting the Retirement Fund for Religious collection the weekend of December 10-11-2016. This annual appeal benefits some 33,000 senior Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests – women and men who have consecrated their lives to serving God and the Church.

Pope Francis calls on the faithful to recognize the special witness that consecrated women and men offer our Church and world. He requests the whole Christian people to be increasingly aware of the gift which is the presence of our many consecrated men and women.

As we reflect on the saints of the past, many of us may also recall women and men religious whom we would consider saints in our day. With gratitude, we remember the sister who penitently helped us learn our multiplication tables or the brother who coached our high school team, teaching us that faith must be lived out even on the basketball court.

Today, many of these sisters, brothers, and religious order priests are elderly. While some continue in volunteer ministry, others are frail and need care. Most worked for years for small stipends, leaving their religious communities without adequate savings to meet growing retirement and eldercare needs.

This is an opportunity for each of us to be the presence of Jesus to our senior consecrated religious. Please pray for God's blessing on all religious and give what you can to the Retirement Fund for Religious the weekend of December 10-11, 2016. Please join me in supporting this important drive and in praying for God's continued blessings on our elderly sisters, brothers and religious order priests.

Very sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Edward J. Weisenburger
Bishop of Salina
