"Why do you seek the living one among the dead?
 He is not here, but he has been raised..."

(from the Holy Gospel according to Luke 24:1-12)

Having delivered His farewell address from the pulpit of the Cross and finished the work of His Eternal Father, Jesus bows His head and dies. To make certain of His death, a centurion, Longinus by name, pierces His heart with a lance and the Divine Master, who saved up a few drops of His Precious Blood, now pours them out to prove that His love is stronger than death.

Two men who lacked courage to declare their affiliations while He was living, Joseph of Arimathea and Nicodemus, brought perfumes and spices and embalmed the body of Jesus. It was first laid on Mary's lap, and it seemed to her that Bethlehem had come back again — but really it had not. Between Bethlehem and Calvary our sins had intervened. The body was lifeless. Jesus was dead.

His enemies remembered that He had said that He would rise again, but they were certain He would not. That was one thing they were absolutely sure of. But they were afraid that the Apostles would come and steal away the body and then say He had risen. Guarding against such deceit, they went to Pilate, asking him to set a watch of soldiers about the tomb for three days in addition to which they would attach their own official seal to the stone before the entrance. Pilate acceded to their request. In the words with which the Evangelist Matthew closed the story of the Passion, the most ironic sentence in literature: "They made the tomb secure by sealing the stone." The seal was placed on the sepulcher and a great stone rolled in front of the door. They took every precaution against fraud, but could take none against Divinity.

As they made their way down Calvary's hill, such thoughts as these ran through their minds: "Now his fisherman can go back to their nets and their boats; their kingdom is a mockery. As for their Master, his heart was so pierced that blood and water came from it. Even though he had a breath of life left in that bloodless body, it is now being suffocated by the hundredweight of spices with which he was embalmed. Our vigilance and that of the soldiers will not permit any one to steal away the body. He who said he had life in abundance is now dead; he who said he could call on his Father to summon twelve legions of angels to his assistance now is cold as death; he who said he could raise up a child of Abraham from a stone is now buried under stone. The imposter is dead! How wonderfully effective is a Roman death! Nothing can survive a crucifixion! He will never breathe again!"

Sunday morning came, and it was one of calm, like the sleep of innocents, and the clear, benign air seemed almost as if it had been stirred by angels' wings. Mary walked in the garden and someone near her spoke a word, and pronounced it longingly, wistfully, in that touching and unforgettable voice which had called her so many times, "Mary." And to this one and only word, she made an answer, a word and only one, "Rabboni." And as she fell at His knees in the dewy grass and clasped in her hands those bare feet, she saw two scars, two red-lined marks of nails — for Christ was now walking in the glory of His new Easter morn.

... and mirth

The Easter egg hid because he was a little chicken.

With Sympathy

The sympathy of the parishes is extended to the family of Francis P. Dreiling, who passed away on Sunday, March 13, 2016. Services were held at the Basilica of St. Fidelis, Victoria, on Saturday, March 19. Inurnment will be in St. Fidelis Cemetery, Victoria.

During the Easter Vigil service this weekend, the Church welcomes Ross Addison and Thaddeus Wheelles to the Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation. Christy Studer, who is already one with us by her Baptism, celebrated the Eucharist for the first time and was Confirmed. Also celebrating the Sacrament of Confirmation is Nichole Howard. The Church welcomes Ross, Thaddeus, Christy, and Nichole and assures them of our continued prayers and support.

PLENARY INDULGENCE GIVEN WHEN VISITING A BASILICA

The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence by visiting a minor basilica. An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord's Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion and pray for the intention of the pope. ~taken from The Register, the Salina Diocese newspaper

HOST AN EXCHANGE STUDENT!

Host families are needed for high school exchange students for the 2016-2017 school year. The students will arrive from Europe, Asia, and South America in mid-August 2016 and will stay with the host family for one semester or until the end of the school year. They are in need of caring American families (with or without children) to provide a home and share with them this unique experience. The host family provides a bed, meals, friendship, understanding, and a genuine desire to share the American way of life with a student from overseas. The students speak English, are covered by medical insurance, and have spending money for their personal expenses. Approved families can view online student applications and select the student that best matches their own family. For more information, please call Kori Braun at 785-735-4161

Divine Mercy Sunday Prayer Service

The Divine Mercy Prayer Service will be held at 3:00 p.m. on Sunday, April 3, at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Hays. The hour will include Eucharistic Exposition, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy in song, litany of prayers, and meditation.

Jesus entrusted Saint Maria Faustina with the task of spreading the message of his Divine Mercy through a series of visions and interior locutions in the 1930s. When Pope John Paul II canonized Saint Faustina April 30, 2000, he declared the Sunday after Easter to be Divine Mercy Sunday and an official feast day of the Church.

Everyone is encouraged to pray the novena to the Divine Mercy, which begins on Good Friday, March 25. Leaflets on this novena are in the brochure rack of the church. CONFESSIONS WILL BE HEARD BEGINNING AT 2:00 p.m. This prayer service is sponsored by Divine Mercy Radio 88.1.

Prayer Hour for Our Nation

We need a lot of prayer, since we are in an important election season. Prayer hour every 3rd Tuesday of the month from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. at St. Fidelis Church. All are welcome!
