GIRL SCOUT SUNDAY

Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them...

(from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew 4:1-11)

DAYLIGHT SAVINGS TIME BEGAN TODAY.
 Did you remember to turn your clocks AHEAD one hour?

Today is the second Sunday of Lent and the gospel reading is Matthew's account of the Transfiguration of Christ. Many wonder what the glorious Transfiguration has to do with penance of Lent. The gospel on the first Sunday of Lent is always the temptations of Christ. That makes sense. Lent is a time to face our weaknesses. On the Second Sunday of Lent, the gospel is always the Transfiguration. That is not an obvious Lenten theme. It may seem more the Easter message of glory, rushing the season as we are tempted to celebrate Christmas in early Advent.

Today's gospel passage must be read in its context to appreciate its full meaning and its Lenten message. The account of the Transfiguration is linked to Peter's misunderstanding of the nature of the Messiah. In the gospel passage, before the story of the Transfiguration, Christ admonishes St. Peter: "The Son of Man must suffer greatly, be rejected by the elders, be killed, and on the third day be raised." Then immediately following the transfiguration, Christ repeats this prediction. The transfiguration is sandwiched between two predictions of his passion to set the transfiguration in the context of the death and resurrection of Christ.

The Apostles who witnessed the transfiguration – Peter, James, and John – are also significant. The same three apostles witnessed the agony in the garden of Gethsemane. At Gethsemane the apostles overslept; at the transfiguration they were overwhelmed. They missed the message both times. The two predictions of his passion, and the three Apostles present, set the transfiguration in the context of the death and resurrection of Christ.

The gospels for these first two Sundays of Lent are one unit focusing on the essence of Lent: turn away from sin, that you may know the glory of God. The temptations of Christ —turn away from sin; The Transfiguration— behold the glory of God.

These two Lenten gospels remind us that the penance of Lent is linked to the promise of Easter. Whatever you are doing for Lent, or denying yourself for Lent, should renew your faith. Many are tempted to the paradox of doing something for Lent to dismiss Lent: "I'm giving up desserts for Lent and that takes care of Lent." No, it does not. Such an attitude gives up on Lent as a time to renew one's faith. The three practices of Lent—prayer, fasting, and almsgiving—are an integral unit. No one can stand alone.

Christ was transfigured to encourage the confused apostles who were dismayed that the Messiah must suffer, die, and rise. The Transfiguration should assure us that our Lenten observance can give new life to our faith. The transfiguration of Christ is proclaimed each Lent in the context of his death and resurrection in the hope that our Lenten observance will transfigure our faith.

THANK YOU!

Great thanks to all who supported the K. of C. Fish Fry on March 3rd. The turnout was great as 302 people were served. The Knights worked great together for many hours preparing the food.

In 2016 the local K. of C. gave $9,477 to charity. The 2017 goal is to exceed $10,000, most of which will be given locally to our youth, schools, churches, and those in need. We need you to make this great goal happen.

Your support to the Knights of Columbus is the Knights support to charity.

The next two fish fries are March 17th and 31st at the VFW in Victoria. Together we are making great things happen!

2017 Heartland Parish Mission:

Has Your Christian Life Become Routine?

Learn How to Become an Intentional Disciple.

Speaker - FOCUS Missionary Tyler Weber

Sunday, March 26 - Tuesday, March 28, 1017

St. Joseph Church, Hays - 7:00 P.M.

Growing up a cradle Catholic, Tyler Weber maintained the minimum practice of attending weekend Mass. When he went off to college at Fort Hays State University in 2009, he fell into two years of the destructive behavior that threatens the souls of so many college students. In his junior year of college, he took his first big leap of faith and attended the Crossroads Retreat that is sponsored every year in Victoria by the Comeau Catholic Campus Center which launched him into seeking a personal relationship with Jesus. After college he worked for one year in his career field as a Radiologic Technologist. He dropped his nets in the spring of 2014 when he left everything to become a full-time Catholic missionary with the Fellowship of Catholic University Students (FOCUS). Many Ellis County Catholics are supporting him in his missionary work. Tyler is in his third year as a missionary, where he currently serves as Team Director. He has a passion for starting fires in the hearts of those around him for Jesus Christ and His Church. One of his favorite future-saints is Mother Angelica (foundress of EWTN). One of his favorite Mother Angelica quotes is: “We’ve lost the theology of risk, we’ve lost our guts. Unless we are willing to do the ridiculous, God will not do the miraculous.”
