And behold, the star that they had seen
at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was.

(from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew 2:1-12)

On Christmas day 1604, the astronomer Johannes Kepler was so intrigued by a bright alignment of planets that he calculated a rare conjunction of planets in 6 BC, which is still the main theory of the Star of Bethlehem. Many want that star to be a brilliant diamond in the night sky. Yet only the Magi saw anything different. Whatever the star of Bethlehem was, it was something that only a few astronomers noticed.

Today's feast, the Epiphany, means manifestation. God manifests himself in many ways. The Magi were astronomers, and God manifested Himself to them by their study of astronomy. It was their profession, their daily work, that led them to God.

It is evident that God comes to us in church and at prayer. The Magi remind us that He comes to us also in the daily work of our profession. He comes in the tools and talents of the craftsman, the pots and pans of the cook, the paper and pencil of the student. The Magi were astronomers and God called them to himself through their calculations of the stars.

Most astronomers did not respond. Only three came. The rest saw stars, and nothing else. Their work did not lead them to God. Perhaps away from Him. That can be true of us, if the tools of our trade and the wages of our work do not enrich our faith, but erode it. In the competition and the confusion of our work we can lose our way. As did the Wise Men. They followed the star not to the Christ Child, but to a dead end. When they were lost their only hope was to go to the Holy City of Jerusalem to learn where the Messiah was to be born, not from experts in astronomy, but from the Word of God in Scripture. The star set them on their journey. But astronomy of itself was not sufficient. Reason led them, but the Word of God showed them the final decisive step.

God draws us to himself through the marvels of nature and the mastery of our work. These set us on our way. But the ultimate answers of life are hidden in the mysteries of our faith. When we get lost in the maze of modern life we need to visit the Holy City, the local church, and there to inquire, "Where is the newborn King? We have seen his star and we have come to pay him homage." The wise still follow his star.

... and mirth

Congress planned a Christmas pageant but had to cancel: couldn't find three wise men.

family MATTERS

Happy New Year!

The New Year's holiday marks the beginning of another year of life together for families. It can easily be overshadowed by football games and parties. Many families make New Year's Day a day of prayer for peace; hence, this day is commonly known as World Day of Peace.

How can you nourish peace in your own family this year? How can you help others searching for peace?

Peace...it should become part of who we are, how we act, how we think, how we love.

As a family:

- Pray together the peace prayer of St. Francis of Assisi, the patron saint of peace.
- Pray the rosary together for the intentions of world peace, peace in your home, and peace within your extended family.
- Find bible verses about peace; talk about them.
- Pray for someone who makes you angry.
- Welcome someone new into your school/community.

Prayer of St. Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.

Where there is hatred, let me sow love.

Where there is injury, pardon.

Where there is doubt, faith.

Where there is despair, hope.

Where there is darkness, light.

Where there is sadness, joy.

O divine Master,

grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled,
as to console;

To be understood, as to understand;

To be loved, as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive.

It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
and it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life.

AMEN.

St. Agnes was a 13-year-old martyr who died about A.D. 258. She devoted her life to doing good for others and praying to Jesus. As her feast day occurs in winter, some refer to snowflakes as "St. Agnes flowers." Cut out paper snowflakes and hang them in your windows this winter in her honor.

It may be January, but Christmas isn't over just yet!

In the first part of the month, we continue to rejoice and celebrate Christ's coming at Bethlehem and in our hearts. We have the wonderful feasts of Mary, Mother of God, (January 1) where we honor Mary's highest title, and then we follow the Magi to the crib as they bring their gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh on the Epiphany (January 7). In Germany, after a service at the churches, the children go from house to house to gather offerings for poor children in poor countries. They are dressed as the three kings and carry sticks with stars on the top. At the homes they sing songs and recite messages of Christmas. At each house they paint "20+C+M+B+18" which are for the Latin Christus Mansionem Benedicat (Christ bless this house). At the same time the letters are the first letters of the names of the wise men: Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar. The "20" and "18" being the year they bless the house. What a great family tradition to begin in your home this year.

Finally, we reach the culmination of this season with the Baptism of Our Lord (January 8) by St. John the Baptist. With a touch of sadness we then take down our decorations and enter into the liturgical period known as Ordinary Time. The liturgical color changes to green, a symbol of the hope of reaping the eternal harvest of Heaven and where we will devote ourselves to the mystery of Christ, in its entirety.

Prayer for a New Bishop

Heavenly Father, you have blessed our diocese time and again with good and holy bishops who have led us ever closer to you.

Aware of your profound love for us, we ask you to bless us once again. Send us a good and holy man to become our next bishop. Inspire us, the clergy, religious, and laity of the diocese to work generously with him so that we might grow together in your love and continue the good work you have begun in us for the sake of all.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever.

AMEN.

Santa's Reindeer: Male or Female?

According to the Alaska Department of Fish and Game, while both male and female reindeer grow antlers in the summer each year, male reindeer drop their antlers at the beginning of winter, usually late November to mid-December.

Female reindeer retain their antlers until after they give birth in the spring.

Based on this information, if true, and according to EVERY historical rendition depicting Santa's reindeer, EVERY single one of them, from Rudolph to Blitzen, had to be a girl.

We should've known—ONLY women would be able to drag a sleigh with a man in a red velvet suit all around the world in one night and not get lost.
