A Mother's Day Prayer

I said a Mother's Day prayer for you to thank the Lord above for blessing me with a lifetime of your tenderhearted love.

I thanked God for the caring you've shown me through the years, for the closeness we've enjoyed in time of laughter and of tears.

And so, I thank you from the heart for all you've done for me and I bless the Lord for giving me the best mother there could be!

~ Author Unknown

This year Mother's' Day falls on the Sunday that the church celebrates the Ascension of the Lord into heaven. Today's gospel from Mark describes the gifts endowed to those whom Christ commissioned to continue his work here on earth. Since this gospel passage is meant to be read allegorically it is fitting that the allegory be extended to the work of mothers.

*"These signs will accompany those who believe:
in my name they will drive out demons,
they will speak new languages.
They will pick up serpents with their hands,
and if they drink any deadly thing, it will not harm them.
They will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover."*

"... they will drive out demons." From the terrible twos to the tempestuous teens, mothers have driven out rebellious demons. Had they not, more deadly demons would have overtaken you.

"... they will speak new languages." From baby talk to teenage slang, mothers have learned to communicate with their children; and to distinguish an honest appeal from a deceptive ruse.

"... they will pick up serpents with their hand." Imagine the "serpents" they had to pick up when they cleaned your room; not to mention the soiled linens of infants.

"... and if they drink any deadly thing, it will not harm them." The tears mothers shed over wayward children could have been a deadly potion, but their motherly love was not harmed.

"... they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover." Mothers have spent many nights with a sick child; and devised remedies to cure headaches and heartaches, real and imagined.

"... then the Lord Jesus, after he spoke to them, was taken up into heaven and took his seat at the right hand of God." On this Mothers' Day we remember with honor and affection not only mothers still among us but also those deceased. Even in a natural sense they are with us now. We still hear their words of wise counsel. They are part of our conscience. And we know that God will reward them abundantly for the good they have instilled in their children.

.... and mirth

"My mother had a lot of trouble raising me, but I think she rather enjoyed it." ~ Mark Twain

Daughters of Isabella St. Fidelis Circle #364

May Crowning & Mother - Daughter Brunch

Sunday, May 6, 2018

The Daughters of Isabella held their annual Mother-Daughter Brunch at the Victoria V.F.W. Hall on Sunday, May 6. A large group of mothers, daughters, and granddaughters attended.

Regent JoAnn Berens mentioned that the organization gained 10 new members this past year, while recognition was given to 21 ladies who have been members for 60 plus years.

Members attended the 10:00 Mass at the Basilica of St. Fidelis before the brunch. Fr. Christopher Popravak, Capuchin provincial minister, celebrated the Mass at which a May Crowning ceremony was held. In his homily, Fr. Christopher said love is not having or getting, but "love is giving until it hurts."

Aspen Schoenrock (right), daughter of Ken and Amy Schoenrock, was this year's recipient of the Daughters of Isabella's $300 scholarship. Aspen will graduate this May from Victoria High School and plans to attend the University of Nebraska majoring in Biosystems engineering and pre-veterinary medicine. Presenting the scholarship certificate to Aspen during the annual Mother-Daughter Brunch at the Victoria V.F.W. Hall on Sunday, May 6, is D. of I. Regent JoAnn Berens.

This year's First Communicants helped the Daughters of Isabella with their May Crowning during the 10:00 a.m. Mass at the Basilica of St. Fidelis on Sunday, May 6. Pictured are (front) Ethan Schulte, Addison VonLintel, and Kaden VonFeldt and (back) Rachel Kuhn, Cydnee Stramel, D. of I. financial secretary Wilma VonLintel, who was given the honor of crowning the Virgin Mary statue, Capuchin Provincial Minister Fr. Christopher Popravak, Grace Younger, and Mia Hammerschmidt.

Andrea Windholz and Kaitlyn Windholz carry the cross and candle as altar servers for the Daughters of Isabella May Crowning Mass on Sunday, May 6. Also serving was Juliana Dinkel (not pictured).

A number of lucky ticket holders got to take home the centerpieces from the Daughters of Isabella Mother-Daughter Brunch.

The Knights of Columbus usually cook the meal for the Daughters of Isabella annual Mother-Daughter Brunch. This year, because of the simple but delicious meal that was served—omelet, sausage links, and cinnamon roll, only one Knight was needed for the task. Leroy Schmidtberger took on the job of watching over the food while the D. of I. members attended Mass and the May Crowning.

Mary Mermis (standing) addresses the brunch crowd telling them how the D. of I. recently combined their donation with her donation to the Lady of Fatima organization which stresses the need for everyone to pray the rosary more. Mary says she prays every morning with a rosary that was blessed at the Vatican in Rome.

Deb Braun (right) smiles after signing in for the Mother-Daughter Brunch at the V.F. W. Hall.

Vice Regent Deb Geschwentner presents Joan VonFeldt (center) with a card recognizing her 65 years of D. of I. membership.

Shirley Weigel (center) receives recognition as a 61-year member of the Daughters of Isabella.

CONGRATULATIONS!

"A Wilderness Adventure Through the Sacraments" VBS Vacation Bible School

Seeking donations

The Office of Religious Education is looking for camping and outdoor themed decorations/items to enhance the backdrop and setting for our VBS.

- * Artificial plants and greenery [Christmas trees work, too, IF they do not require much assembly and are easy to set-up.]
- * Easy to set-up tents
- * Blue, green, brown rolls of construction paper
- * Artificial fire
- * Wooden coat hanger
- * Scraps of wood

Items that are donated may be donated to the St. Fidelis Thrift Shop at the conclusion of the VBS (unless you specifically request that the item be returned to you).

Our Vacation Bible School is free to our children; any donations are extremely appreciated.

Other ways you can help:

- * Volunteering your time to decorate prior to the VBS!
- * Supervise a group for a day (or on the days you are available)
- * Play the guitar or piano during our faith station and during the Celebration of Mass
- * Grab some friends, grab a VBS script, and lead a skit to entertain our littles!
- * Offer to purchase snacks for one day during the VBS or donate money for snacks. At this VBS very specific snacks will be purchased which all tie in with the daily virtue and theme. A list of these snacks are available.
- * Make a small monetary donation.

Do you have something you think could be used or have a question? Please contact Jeanette Brungardt in the Religious Ed Office at 785-735-9244, on her cell: 785-639-5067, or by email at Fidelisyouth@ruraltel.net.

PLENARY INDULGENCE GIVEN WHEN VISITING A BASILICA

The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence by visiting a minor basilica. An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord's Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion and pray for the intention of the pope.
