Blessings in Disguise

General George Patton, after his successful campaign in North Africa, was confident that he would be given the command for the invasion of Italy. But it was given to Montgomery, while Patton was assigned a phantom army to divert attention from Normandy Beach. A disappointed Patton wrote in his diary: "Thanksgiving Day, 1942. I have nothing to be thankful for. So I did not give thanks today." Just a few months later General Patton was appointed commander of Operation Overlord, the invasion of Europe, where he led his victorious army into Germany.

Such twists of fate in our lives are often referred to as blessings in disguise. We have all had disappointments and setbacks that hurt us deeply at the time. But so often the fortunes of life change in such a way that these disappointments are later seen as blessings in the larger design of providence.

It is easy to be grateful for blessings which enrich our present life. How could one not appreciate good health, good friends, and good fortune? But to be thankful for our hidden blessings is a challenge. A special grace of wisdom is knowing that some disappointments in life are actually blessings in disguise.

This is especially true of the hidden blessings of faith. Perhaps you were upset by unanswered prayers, moral teachings of the church, or changes in the liturgy. Yet with the advantage of hindsight, you came to see that many of these were occasions for you to grow in your faith. A secure faith is a great blessing. But challenges to our faith are opportunities to develop a yet deeper faith.

If you are struggling this Thanksgiving with difficulties of faith, weary of an illness, troubled with uncertain finances, or challenged by a difficult relationship, know that gratitude in abundance is a cheap virtue. But thanksgiving in trials, rooted in hope with trust in the providence of God, is the sterling virtue of the faithful. The ultimate blessing in disguise is the Paschal Mystery, the mystery of the death and the resurrection of Christ. That central belief of our faith is celebrated in the Eucharist, a word which means Thanksgiving.

A disappointed Patton wrote in his diary: "Thanksgiving Day, 1942. I have nothing to be thankful for. So I did not give thanks today." May God grant us the grace to see beyond our daily trials so that with trust in his providence we can write in the diary of our hearts, "Thanksgiving Day, 2018. Today I gave thanks to God."

Liturgy of the Word for Children

An invite for pre-K aged children and grade levels K—3

If you have a son or daughter at the pre-school age level (4 years old) or a son/daughter that is in grades K—3, they may join the children on Sundays for Liturgy of the Word for Children. The children are called forward by Father during the 10:00 A.M. Mass at St. Fidelis, prior to Liturgy of the Word. The children are then escorted by their teacher. The pre-school aged children gather in the bridal room (closest to the west entrance of church) and grades K—3 gather in the sacristy. Liturgy of the Word for Children gathers on most Sundays during the school year! We hope your child(ren) can join! ☺

Care packages for our Seniors

This Christmas the Religious Education Office would like to once again give to our elderly a sentimental care package to let them know they are prayed and cared for! In order to do so we are asking our students in grades K - 12 to consider contributing items for these care packages! Please see the list of suggested items at the very bottom of this note.

In December, our Jr. CYO will have a Christmas Party and hand deliver the care packages to our beloved parishioners! I have set a goal of packaging 100 shoeboxes this year! I absolutely believe we can meet, if not exceed, this goal! We packed over 75 last year!

The Parish Office is providing a list of our senior/elderly parishioners within the Tri-Parishes. If you know of an individual you would like to bless with a care package please submit their name and address to Jeanette Brungardt in the Religious Ed Office by Wednesday, November 28.

So that we receive a balance of donated items, suggested items for students in specific grades follows:

If you think of other festive or fun ideas you are welcome to donate them; this list is suggestive.

Please drop your items off with your religious education teacher or during the PAC's office hours by Wednesday, November 28! (Mon - Thurs: 8:30-12 & 1-4:30 Fri: 8:30 - 12)
