PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord’s Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

“You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.”

Luke 3:15-16, 21-22)

Baptismal DNA

DNA is used to identify a person. Each person's DNA is unique, yet families share characteristics by genes from the same parental DNA. Therefore, children are different, yet the same as their parents. DNA offers an analogy for the Baptism of Christ being different and yet the same as our own baptism. We share in the spiritual DNA of Christ through baptism.

If we limit the concept of Baptism to our own baptism we will never correctly understand the Baptism of Christ. Why would the sinless Son of God receive baptism which frees one of sin and makes one a child of God? Even the Evangelists appear uneasy in recounting this event in the life of Christ.

Mark tells of the baptism straightforward without comment. Matthew has John address the awkward situation, "I should be baptized by you." Christ then offers this explanation, "We must do this to fulfill all of God's demands." In today's gospel reading from Luke, the focus shifts to the Holy Spirit coming upon

Jesus in prayer. Yet these three different accounts of the Baptism of the Lord all conclude with the same words from God the Father, "This is my beloved Son."

The fact that God the Father speaks at the baptism of Christ is significant. Only three times in the gospels does God the Father speak: at the baptism and the Transfiguration of Christ in Matthew, Mark and Luke; and as Christ prepares for his passion in John's gospel. Each of these events offers an insight into the identity of Christ in relation to the Father and his mission from the Father.

The words from the Father are the key to the meaning of the baptism of Christ: Jesus is the Son of God, sent by the Father for our salvation. His baptism is the public proclamation that he has been anointed by the Father as Messiah to lead us on the path to salvation which begins at baptism.

The baptism of Christ is the parental DNA of our own baptism. Different, yet the same. His baptism reveals his holiness and his mission; our baptism gives us a share in his holiness and commissions us as his disciples to share in his mission.

The opening prayer of today's Mass reflects on that sameness in difference: "Almighty ever-living God, at His baptism you revealed Jesus as your own beloved Son. Keep us, your children born of water and the Spirit, faithful to our calling. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen."

Nativity Pictures Dated Before 1961

We are looking for pictures of the indoor nativity scene that Brother Wendelin Weisner used to set up in the The Basilica of St. Fidelis. Brother Wendelin died in January 1961, so the pictures would have to be dated before that time. All the pictures in our files seem to be of the crib that we currently set up at Christmas time.

If you have access to a picture of the indoor crib before 1961, we would appreciate getting a copy of it for the church records. If you don't have the ability to scan it as a good quality JPG file, we can scan it here at the Parish Office. Thank you for any help you can give us.

How Children Can Safely Volunteer in Ministry

Volunteering within the church can be a fulfilling experience for children, helping them develop a sense of community, empathy, and responsibility. However, ensuring their safety is paramount. Here are some guidelines for parents and church leaders to ensure children can volunteer safely within the church environment with tasks appropriate for their age.

Younger children can help with simple tasks like greeting attendees or distributing programs and the older children can assist with activities like serving food and helping with children's games or sitting with younger ones at Mass or during rosary.

How are the children in your parish volunteering?
