PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord’s Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

God's Mulligan

Golfers call it a mulligan. The gospel knows it as God's mercy. We all welcome the opportunity to correct a failure and try again. We often need a second chance to start anew. Christians, like golfers, value a mulligan.

The parable in today's gospel is about the second chance offered by the mercy of God. The gardener in the parable begs the owner of the orchard not to impatiently discard the barren fig tree. He asks permission to cultivate and fertilize the tree and allow it one more chance to bear fruit. He was asking for the mercy of a second chance.

But there is a difficulty with this parable. The owner said that the tree would be given another chance to bear fruit but if not it would be cut down. Yes, the tree is given a second chance, but it is a do-or-die second chance. Since the parable is about the mercy of God, it may seem to limit divine forgiveness. Yet we are taught that God is long suffering with our failures and that his mercy is infinite.

The mercy of God is paradoxical. It is infinite, but also limited. It is infinite in God's offering, but limited by our repentance. Only the generous can appreciate a gift, only the loving can know love, only the forgiving can truly be forgiven, and only the penitent can receive mercy.

The early Fathers of the Church spoke of the Sacrament of Confession as "second plank after shipwreck." Baptism was the first opportunity to be freed of all sin. For subsequent failures the church offers the sacrament of confessing our sins and receiving absolution to restore us to the full graces of God. By the mercy of God, the Sacrament of Penance is an ever-present spiritual mulligan.

This dimension of divine mercy is clarified in the gospel passage where Christ speaks of the unforgivable sin, blaspheming the Holy Spirit. "All sins will be forgiven, but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven." (Lk 12:10) This difficult passage is explained in the Catholic Catechism:

"There are no limits to the mercy of God, but anyone who deliberately refuses to accept his mercy by repenting, rejects the forgiveness of his sins and the salvation offered by the Holy Spirit." (CCC 1864)

Lent is a special time to open our hearts to the mercy of God by a sincere repentance of our failures and confessing our sins with a firm purpose of living our faith more authentically. By the mercy of God you can always take a mulligan.

... and mirth

The saints were sinners who kept on trying. - Mother Teresa

Come and See

Something exciting is happening in our diocese!

Eucharistic Adoration is growing. Our diocese has launched a spiritual campaign entitled "Adoration for Peace." The purpose is to begin or increase Eucharistic Adoration within all 86 parishes in the diocese to bring peace to our world, our communities, our parishes, our families, and even to our own hearts.

What does this mean for you as a parishioner?

- More times available to worship your Creator
- Opportunities to grow in your love of the Eucharist by spending some quiet time in Eucharistic Adoration

What will happen in our Tri-Parishes?

- As of March 5, the congregation is praying the "Adoration for Peace" prayer after Communion
- Increased times for Eucharistic Adoration in all three parishes
- Social media announcements about or supporting Eucharistic Adoration
- Public testimonies at Mass concerning Eucharistic Adoration
- Phone calls inviting you to commit to a time for Eucharistic Adoration
- Regularly scheduled Adoration to begin June 22, Feast of Corpus Christi

What can you do?

- Pray for the success of this campaign
- Prayerfully consider participating in Eucharistic Adoration
- Open your heart to the Spirit when asked to commit to Eucharistic Adoration

Parish goals (more opportunities will be added as interest increases):

- St. Ann's-before or after weekly Mass-times TBA
- St. Boniface-during Lent:8 a.m.-8 p.m. March 29, 12 hours following harvest, 24 hours Advent Session TBA
- St. Fidelis Basilica-3 days Perpetual Adoration each week

Each of our three parishes will have different Adoration schedules, and parishioners from any parish are welcome to attend Adoration at any of the churches. Come and see what God has in store for you if you just give Him some of your time. Come and See!

BLACK MASS

On Friday, March 28, a Black Mass will be held outside our State Capitol in Topeka. A Black Mass is a blasphemous satanic ritual that desecrates the Holy Eucharist.

Some have asked what they can or should do about the Black Mass being held. The answer is simple; go to mass and offer it for the sins committed against the Eucharist and for the conversion of the sinners. There is absolutely nothing else as powerful as one mass. Petitions and protests are the work of people, but mass is the work of God.

Let's fill the Basilica at the 6:45 am morning mass on Friday, March 28.

Catholic Relief Services Collection

Next week our parish will take up the Catholic Relief Services Collection. Funds from this collection provide food to the hungry, support displaced refugees, and bring Christ's love and mercy to vulnerable people here and abroad. Next week, please give generously to the collection and reveal Christ's love to those most in need.

Social Media & Child Safety

As the digital landscape continues to evolve, social media platforms have become an integral part of children's lives. While these platforms offer opportunities for connection and creativity, they also present potential risks.

Understanding the Risks

Children are exposed to various risks on social media, including cyberbullying, inappropriate content, online predators, and potential breaches of privacy. Acknowledging these risks is the first step towards implementing effective safety measures.

- Educate Children about Online Risks: Educating children about the potential dangers they might encounter on social media is paramount. Encourage them to think critically about the content they encounter and to report any concerning behavior.
- Set Age-Appropriate Boundaries: Most social media platforms have age restrictions for a reason. Enforce age-appropriate boundaries to ensure that children are using platforms that align with their developmental stage. Younger children may benefit from supervised platforms with additional safety features.
- Open Communication Channels: Establishing open communication with children is crucial. Encourage them to share their online experiences, ask questions, and express concerns without fear of punishment. This fosters trust and allows parents to address issues promptly.
- Teach Responsible Posting and Sharing: Instill a sense of responsibility regarding what children post and share online. Emphasize the permanence of digital content and the potential impact on their reputation. Encourage them to think twice before sharing personal information or engaging in risky online behavior.

Implementing Safety Measures

As a parent, you have the power to prevent many of these situations by monitoring your child's activity while they use their phone or tablet.

Below are basic guidelines for parental supervision of children when they receive a phone or tablet.

- Privacy Settings: Teach children how to adjust privacy settings on their social media accounts. Restricting access to personal information and choosing who can see their posts helps control their online environment.
- Monitoring and Supervision: Regularly monitor children's online activities and when appropriate, supervise their usage. This proactive approach allows parents to identify potential risks and address concerns before they escalate.
- Use Parental Controls: Leverage parental control tools provided by social media platforms or third-party apps. These tools allow parents to set restrictions, monitor online activities, and receive alerts for suspicious behavior.
- Encourage Positive Online Behavior: Promote positive online behavior by emphasizing the importance of respect and kindness. Teach children to think critically about the content they encounter and to be mindful of the impact of their words and actions on others.

Navigating the digital landscape can be challenging, but with proactive measures, education, and open communication, parents can create a safer online environment for their children. By instilling responsible online habits and staying actively involved in their digital lives, we can empower the younger generation to make informed choices and build positive, meaningful connections in the ever-expanding world of social media.
