PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord’s Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

More Than A Mystery

The militant atheist Sam Harris has written that Christians hide behind the absurdity of a Trinity of three persons in one God by calling it a mystery. He is right. He is also very wrong. It is true that we will never completely understand the inner life of God. If we would fully understand God, we would be grasping within human reason, that which is by definition beyond human reason, divinity.

The mystery of the Holy Trinity is more than an unsolved problem. It is a pattern of life that invites a deeper reflection on life. Christian faith is replete with mysteries: the Paschal mystery, the Eucharistic mystery, the mystery of the Trinity. These mysteries tell us something about God, but also something about ourselves. They are patterns of divine life that offer new insights into our human life.

The Trinity is a mystery about God. Since we are made in the image and the likeness of God, we are made in the image and likeness of the Trinity. The Trinity is therefore a mystery about ourselves, a mystery about our individual lives, and our life with others. We are essentially social creatures; we have relationships with others.

Such relationships are perhaps the most challenging aspect of human life. The Trinity is a mystery that reminds us that God is not an isolated abstract being. Divine life is a life of personal relationships. We all struggle to live together harmoniously: husband-wife, parent-child, worker-boss. Our peaceful relationships are our greatest comfort, our failed relationships, our bitter regrets.

The Trinity is a model for this great human challenge of peaceful relationships. The most profound human lesson of Trinity Sunday is that living in a rewarding relationship is living in the image of God, sharing in the mystery of the Trinity. Even on a human level, we have that experience, the experience that successful relationships lift us into something bigger and better than ourselves.

Atheism might be intellectually appealing to some, but it can never address the great mysteries of human life which are revealed in the mystery of three persons in one God. The Christian belief in the Trinity offers a model, a meaning, and a purpose for life. Catholics experience that grand design in the sacraments, by which we share, through grace, in the life of God.

Today Christians celebrate the mystery that God is: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, Three persons, equal in majesty, undivided in splendor, yet one Lord, one God, in whose image we were made and whose life and love we are called to imitate.

Church, Chat, and Coffee

Come by the north sacristy Tuesday mornings following Mass for a cup of Joe, and if you can, stay and chat. If time does not permit you to visit, just grab a cup to go. Coffee will be ready and to-go cups available. We look forward to sharing some Java and conversation together.

Corpus Christi Procession

There will be a Corpus Christi procession with a very short time of Adoration and Benediction immediately following the Masses on Saturday, June 1, at St. Boniface, and on Sunday, June 2, at St. Ann and St. Fidelis. Due to time constraints for Fr. Jim, this will not follow the 5:00 Mass at St. Fidelis on June 1.

All parishioners are invited to remain in Church for a few minutes to give adoration to Jesus Christ on this special Feast Day.

Hearing Assists Available for Use During Mass in The Basilica

St. Fidelis has wireless hearing assists with adjustable volume that connect directly to the church's sound system. If you are interested in trying one, come by the Parish Office, pay a small deposit, and keep your unit until you don't need it. We will refund your deposit once the unit is returned.

If you already have personal Bluetooth hearing aids that are controllable from your cell phone, you can download an app on your cell and hear in church through your hearing aids.

Just download the WaveCAST Audio Receiver app by Williams Sound LLC from the Apple App Store on i-phones or from Google

Play or Play Store on android phones.

While in church when the sound system is turned on, click the WaveCAST icon and select the church's "HearingAid" wi-fi option to connect to the system. The password is also "hearingaid".

You will then control the volume, etc. from your individual hearing aid program already on your phone.

History Articles of The Basilica of St. Fidelis

If you are cleaning out closets, attics, garages, or whatever, and you find articles of interest to the history of our church, we would appreciate you donating them to the parish. We want to preserve information or items concerning our beautiful, magnificent church.

Volunteers are currently working on preparing and pasting newspaper and magazine articles into a large scrapbook.
