PLenary INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord’s Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

Love Your Enemy

The atheistic philosopher Fredrick Nietzsche did not like Jesus of Nazareth. And today's gospel is one of the major reasons. Nietzsche's basic theme was The Will to Power. He claimed that when Jesus taught his followers to love their enemies he encouraged them to be the miserable doormats of society, trampled on by their powerful oppressors.

The commandment of Christ to love our enemy is revolutionary. No other religion has anything remotely like it. Some even bless vengeance. But the gospel says, "Love your enemies and do good to those who hate you." That obviously goes against our natural instinct. So, why should we do good to those who hate us?

Today's gospel explains: "Then you will be children of God for He himself is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked." If we love our enemies we do as God does. But why is God good and loving to the ungrateful? The Book of Wisdom says that kindness to the wicked "turns their hearts from destruction and their malice to mercy."

Here Christianity is surprisingly practical. Loving our enemies has the power to free our enemies from their hatred and vengeance. It is often the only thing that can. Returning their hatred with hatred only escalates the war. Ignoring them entrenches a cold war. But when I love my enemies I not only lay down my own arms, I disarm my opponents. They no longer have an enemy. They can only fight with their own conscience.

The personal application of this gospel is not about politics or war. It is about our own interpersonal conflicts. A partner in marriage has been called the intimate enemy. When spouses have a falling-out any small issue can escalate dramatically, but a small act of love can disarm.

Children can also experience the intimate enemy when siblings fight among themselves. As do parents dealing with a rebellious teenager, or adult children estranged from their parents. A feuding neighbor can also be such an enemy. The right words to repair these rifts are difficult to find. But an act of kindness can break the ice of mistrust. When such enemies are in need of assistance, a helping hand can erase an old animosity. Love your enemy is the only effective way to defuse these situations.

Nietzsche is not alone in promoting reliance on power to rule others. Many in modern society fail to realize that loving one's enemy, properly understood, is much more effective than the dominance of power to achieve what everyone desires most, peace.

... and mirth

Love your enemies; it will disarm them..

Living Joy

God created you for JOY—and He wants that for you here and now!

Join us for “The 9 Rules for Living Joy”. Chris Stefanick explains these rules and each “rule” consists of two short, 5-minute videos, with the second usually focusing on more practical application of that rule.

We will discuss one rule a week every Tuesday morning at 7:45 AM in the north sacristy.

ADORATION FOR PEACE

SALINA DIOCESE SPIRITUAL CAMPAIGN

Come and See

Something exciting is happening in our diocese!

Eucharistic Adoration is growing. Our diocese has launched a spiritual campaign entitled “Adoration for Peace.”

The purpose is to begin or increase Eucharistic Adoration within all 86 parishes in the diocese to bring peace to our world, our communities, our parishes, our families, and even to our own hearts.

What does this mean for you as a parishioner? It means you will have more opportunities to spend time worshipping your Creator. It means you can grow in your love of the Eucharist if you just take the time to spend some quiet time in Eucharistic Adoration.

So, what will you see happening in our Tri Parishes?

- Beginning March 5th, at Mass, a prayer will be added to be said after Communion
- Increased times for Eucharistic Adoration in all three parishes
- Some social media announcements about or supporting Eucharistic Adoration
- Some public testimonies at Mass concerning Eucharistic Adoration
- Phone calls inviting you to commit to a time for Eucharistic Adoration

What can you do?

- Pray for the success of this campaign
- Prayerfully consider participating in Eucharistic Adoration
- Open your heart to the Spirit when asked to commit to Eucharistic Adoration

Each of our three parishes will have different Adoration schedules, and parishioners from any parish are welcome to attend Adoration at any of the churches. Come and see what God has in store for you if you just give Him some of your time. Come and See!
