PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord’s Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

“Jesus returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit
into the desert
for forty days,
to be tempted
by the devil.”

Luke 4:1-13

DAYLIGHT SAVINGS TIME BEGAN TODAY.
Did you remember to turn your clocks AHEAD one hour?

Satan Strikes Out

The gospel for the first Sunday of Lent is always about Satan tempting Christ in the desert. The gospel of Mark says simply: "He was in the desert forty days, tempted by Satan." The gospels of Matthew and Luke tell of three specific temptations: to turn stone to bread, to rule the world, and to leap from the temple. Each of these temptations features a scriptural debate, which the devil loses.

This year we read from the gospel of Luke, a gospel of compassion and mercy. But Luke is not naive about the wiles of the devil. Satan is mentioned more often in Luke than in the other gospels. He does so to emphasize that the life and death of Christ was fundamentally the struggle between good and evil as personified in the devil.

Luke alone concludes the three temptations with an ominous warning: "The devil departed from him until an opportune time." That time will be Holy Week, when Luke mentions the presence of Satan three times, recalling the three temptations: "Then Satan entered Judas." (Luke 22:3) "Simon, Simon, behold Satan has demanded to sift all of you like wheat." (Luke 22:31) "This is the time for the power of darkness." (Luke 22:53)

On Calvary, the three temptations of the devil in the desert reappear in a more intense form. Christ becomes thirsty, as he was hungry in the desert; to worship the power of the devil by cursing rather than forgiving his executioners; and finally the crowd taunts him to come down from the cross as the devil tempted him to leap from the temple.

Our own temptations, our struggle between good and evil, are but different forms of the devil tempting Christ in the desert and on Calvary. The values of Christianity are often denied in the modern world where we are tempted daily to compromise our faith in Christ.

The message of this gospel about the temptations of Christ is much more encouraging than depressing. Yes, the devil is active again in our age through the forces for evil in the world. But temptations, as all challenges, offer an opportunity to grow in our faith.

The gospel of Matthew concludes the story of the temptations of Christ with this comforting and encouraging thought for all Christians who have successfully overcome their temptations. "Then the devil left him, and behold angels came and ministered to him." Overcoming a temptation brings a sense of well being and peace unique to the Kingdom of God.

.... and mirth

The greatest human temptation is to settle for too little, the mediocre life.

A LITTLE CHUCKLE

A Sunday school teacher was telling her class the story of the Good Samaritan. She asked the class, "If you saw a person lying on the roadside, wounded and bleeding, what would you do?" A thoughtful little girl broke the hushed silence, "I think I'd throw up."

NECESSARY RETIREMENT

As you already know, I have announced your new pastor to begin on March 14. With a heavy heart I must bow out. You are probably aware that age catches up to us and it reaches a point where you can no longer cover up declining abilities. I am not able to physically handle what needs to be done in my role as your pastor. I am very proud of my service here to St. Ann, St. Boniface, and St. Fidelis Parishes and I really would want to continue, but I cannot.

Please accept my sincere thanks for all the support and encouragements you have given me in the last five years. You have been great to work for and with. I have greatly enjoyed my time here. I do appreciate my acquaintances and opportunity to be a part of your families in some of the most endearing moments in your lives. What a privilege! To those whom I have hurt. I ask your forgiveness, particularly for your own sake. I do apologize. I am far from perfect.

May God grant you continued growth in Christ through the Holy Spirit. May He continue to bless each of you and shepherd you to the fullness of eternal life!

— Fr. Jim

CONNIE'S RETIREMENT

Connie Windholz has retired from her valued position on the parish staff. She has endeared herself to everyone in the community. Untold benefits have come to the parishes as a result of her experience, expertise and generosity. We cannot thank her enough for all she has done for so many of us. Only God can fully reward her for all the good she has done. We ask Him to continue to bless her in every way. We will all miss her dearly.

Living Joy

God created you for JOY—and He wants that for you here and now!

Join us for “The 9 Rules for Living Joy”. Chris Stefanick explains these rules and each “rule” consists of two short, 5-minute videos, with the second usually focusing on more practical application of that rule.

We will discuss one rule a week every Tuesday morning at 7:45 AM in the north sacristy.

Come and See

Something exciting is happening in our diocese!

Eucharistic Adoration is growing. Our diocese has launched a spiritual campaign entitled “Adoration for Peace.” The purpose is to begin or increase Eucharistic Adoration within all 86 parishes in the diocese to bring peace to our world, our communities, our parishes, our families, and even to our own hearts.

What does this mean for you as a parishioner?

- More times available to worship your Creator
- Opportunities to grow in your love of the Eucharist by spending some quiet time in Eucharistic Adoration

What will happen in our Tri-Parishes?

- As of March 5, the congregation is praying the “Adoration for Peace” prayer after Communion
- Increased times for Eucharistic Adoration in all three parishes
- Social media announcements about or supporting Eucharistic Adoration
- Public testimonies at Mass concerning Eucharistic Adoration
- Phone calls inviting you to commit to a time for Eucharistic Adoration
- Regularly scheduled Adoration to begin June 22, Feast of Corpus Christi

What can you do?

- Pray for the success of this campaign
- Prayerfully consider participating in Eucharistic Adoration
- Open your heart to the Spirit when asked to commit to Eucharistic Adoration

Parish goals (more opportunities will be added as interest increases):

- St. Ann’s-before or after weekly Mass-times TBA
- St. Boniface-during Lent:8 a.m.-8 p.m. March 29, 12 hours following harvest, 24 hours Advent Session TBA
- St. Fidelis Basilica-3 days Perpetual Adoration each week

Each of our three parishes will have different Adoration schedules, and parishioners from any parish are welcome to attend Adoration at any of the churches. Come and see what God has in store for you if you just give Him some of your time. Come and See!
