PLenary INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord’s Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

Faith Is Good Business

None of us wants an outsider telling us how to do our business. Whether you are a butcher, a baker, or a candlestick maker, you are proud of your skills and reluctant to heed advice from casual observers. So imagine the chagrin of St. Peter and the other disciples in this Sunday's gospel. They were professional fishermen and a wandering Rabbi, with a background in carpentry, told them how to fish. After they had carefully applied their skills all night long, this casual observer tells them, "Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch."

However, the lesson of this gospel story is not how to fish, but how to practice of our faith. "Put out into deep water," is not about the water depth, but the deep parts of our minds and our hearts. "Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch."

Most of us are skilled in a trade, a craft, a profession. We use our skills automatically without much reflection on the further implications of our work. In the urgency to do good work, it is easy to miss the faith dimension of our labor. In fact, we may deny it. "Keep religion out of politics." "The church cannot tell me how to run my business." "The Bible belongs in church."

But all of life has a faith dimension. The gospel challenges us to integrate our faith into our daily work. There is more to your work than economic productivity and job security. There is an inherent dignity to your labors; your work involves moral responsibilities; and your profession is an expression of your faith. Such values present an enormous challenge in the modern world, especially in the complex areas of medicine, social service, and government.

It would be naïve to suggest that the Pope tell NASA when to launch or the pastor tell a computer techie how to program. Yet all of our work has a moral dimension: honesty in business, charity in service, respect for life, care for the unfortunate, mercy for failings, and example to youth. We need to reflect on these moral implications of our work with guidance from the Scriptures, from our Catholic tradition, and from the leaders of our faith.

Above all we need the guidance of prayer where we listen to the voice of God's spirit deep within us. Prayer is one of the many ways that we follow the Lord's command to "Put out into deep water, and lower your nets for a catch."

DIOCESE

National Marriage Week

The observances of National Marriage Week (February 7-14) and World Marriage Day (Sunday, February 9) are an opportunity to focus on building a culture of life and love that begins with supporting and promoting marriage and the family. This year's theme is "Marriage: Source of Hope, Spring of Renewal. Pursue a Lasting Love!"

National Catholic Schools Week

National Catholic Schools Week is January 26-31. This is an annual celebration of Catholic education in the United States that was started in 1974. Schools typically observe the week with Masses, assemblies, and other activities for students, families, parishioners, and community members to celebrate. Through these events, schools focus on the value Catholic education provides to young people and its contributions to our church, our communities, and our nation. This year's theme is Catholic School: United in Faith and Community. Bishop Vincke will celebrate Mass with all the students throughout the week in our communities.

A MILLION MEMORARES for hope

Every parish across the diocese has available special postcards designed specifically for the Million Memorares for Hope challenge.

On the postcard, individuals are able to write a special intention, as well as share what gives them hope. For every card filled out, the individual is challenged to pray one hundred Memorares.

Once completed, the card can be mailed to the chancery. Upon receipt, Bishop Vincke will take the time to pray over the cards, lifting up the intentions of those who have participated.

The goal is to have a million Memorares prayed, creating a powerful wave of hope throughout the community. Everyone is invited to join in seeking grace and strength through the intercession of Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

Memorare Prayer

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known, that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession, was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother. To thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Many Great Saints!

As Catholics, we have whole groups of people surrounding us here on Earth, and in Heaven! God has given us each special gifts. When we share them with the people around us, we build a community where God's Creation thrives! During this month, take a moment to learn about the communities these Black and Indian saints have nurtured. From the streets of Denver, to newspapers in Ohio, the people on this page brought hope and joy to the world around them!
