PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord’s Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

To Give or Not to Give

There is a subtle message in today's gospel that should not be missed. It is very significant that the widow had two coins. One coin is a simple yes or no. But two coins create complex options. If she had just one coin, she could simply give it or not give it. But she had two coins and faced more choices. She could keep both. She could give one and keep the other. But she gave both.

Two coins reveal that it was not the total amount that was significant. It was the total giving. The gospel says that in giving both she gave out of her livelihood. A way of life, not an isolated gift of charity.

A caution is in order. This gospel is a parable about total commitment, not large collections. It is not suggesting that the needy give their necessary resources to church, which Christ condemned as devouring the savings of widows. Stewardship is about responsible giving, not irresponsible grabbing. This gospel is about more than donating money. As the two coins illustrate, it is about discerning priorities, deciding how to live. It is not about finances; it is about faith. It is about almsgiving as an expression of our faith commitment.

Many have distorted or cynical ideas about giving to charity and to church, which can be illustrated by a misunderstanding of tithing as pew rent. "It costs so much to run this place. I'll pay my fair share." The gospel understanding of tithing says, "I give not that I can have a seat, but that there can be seats for everyone." St. Philip Neri, who cared for orphans, said, "The second coat in your closet does not belong to you. It belongs to the poor child who has none."

This gospel is about more than donating to the temple, it is about a way of life. As the widow with two coins, we have many choices as to how we use our financial resources. An ancient proverb says, "Show me your checkbook and I will tell you what kind of a Christian you are."

If we give as the widow in the gospel, we give because we understand that all we have in life is a gift from God for which we are held accountable. We are stewards, not owners. The poor widow can teach us that. "Amen I say to you, this poor widow gave more than all the others. They contributed from their surplus wealth. But she, from her poverty, her whole livelihood."

... and mirth

We make a living by what we get; we make a life by what we give.

All Souls Rosary

On Wednesday, October 30, 51 families plus catechists, and parishioners gathered to pray for our deceased loved ones souls. There are truly no words to explain the time we were able to spend together in community, praying for one another's loved ones: fathers, mothers, children, grandparents, aunts, uncles, family, and friends.

Families, thank you for being a witness to charity, mercy, and hope. May we all continue to have faith in the goodness and mercy of Jesus and His desire to one day be united with us in Heaven.

Parents and students, your witness and presence was a blessing to all. Thank you for allowing yourself to be vulnerable and opening your hearts; we hope and pray your heart finds rest and comfort renewed daily with moments of joy and peace.

May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.
